

1. How are the readings and teachings shaping your understanding of God?

2. As you have moved through this training this month (readings, teachings and spiritual disciplines), what have you found yourself drawn to or lingering with? What has made you want to go deeper?

What goes on between you and God as you talk together about that right now?

3. As you have moved through this training this month (readings, teachings and spiritual disciplines), where did you experience dissonance? What did you feel confused about, disturbed by or annoyed with? Where might you have disagreed with the authors or teachers?

What goes on between you and God as you talk together about that right now?

4. What has drawn you towards God?

5. What is the prayer that is being formed in you right now?
